Completing specific parts of the form

PART A Personal Details (please complete all fields)

Section A1

If you have previously enrolled or applied to the University of Melbourne, please state your student/application number. Print your name clearly in block letters. If your name differs from that on any of your supporting documentation, you must provide proof of that change (ie. deed poll or marriage certificate).

Section A2

Please provide details of your citizenship status.

Section A3

Print your permanent address during the application period, including a postal address if it differs from your permanent address.

If any of your personal details change after you lodge your application you must inform the relevant Admissions Office immediately.

Section A4

For specified graduate professional entry degrees the Graduate Access Melbourne scheme provides access to applicants whose personal circumstances have had a sustained adverse effect on their academic achievement at undergraduate level, or who are members of a specified group known to be underrepresented in higher education. Eligible applicants will also be considered for a Graduate Access Melbourne Bursary.

Please note that for some categories of the scheme you will be required to submit a separate form to be considered. Details about Graduate Access Melbourne scheme, including the categories and the application form are available at www.gradaccess.unimelb.edu.au

PART B Graduate Programs by Coursework

Section B1

Please complete this with all the particulars.

You must enter the correct course title and mode of study (ie. full or part-time). These details can be obtained from course search: www.coursesearch.unimelb.edu.au

Please nominate your course preference 1 through 3 if you are applying for more than one course. If applying for more than three courses, please attach additional courses at the end of the application form.

Please nominate the fee type you are applying for. You can nominate both a Commonwealth supported place (CSP) and an Australian fee place. You will first be considered for a CSP in this instance. Note that not all courses have CSPs, please refer to the relevant Admissions Office for more information.

Section B2

Please write a brief summary for each course you nominate stating why you have chosen to apply for this particular course (if applicable to the program(s) you are applying for). For courses that require a more detailed submission please attach your personal statement to the application form.

Section B3

If you have previously completed the same study area at an undergraduate or graduate level you may be eligible for advanced standing (credit or exemption). You will need to submit an application for exemption with supporting documentation, please refer to the relevant Admissions Office for more information.

PART C Academic Qualifications

Section C1

Please list the details of your entire academic history (tertiary) ensuring all details are accurately provided.

Please ensure documented evidence of all academic records are attached including:

1. Official original or certified copies of all transcripts (if you have completed your previous study at the University of Melbourne, provided you give your student number under which you studied, it is not necessary for you to supply official original or certified copies of all transcripts).*
2. An explanation of the grading system (e.g. A = 100%-80%), usually found on the reverse of your academic transcript.
3. Wherever possible please provide official advice from the university detailing the actual numeric marks (eg. 82%) or GPAs (eg. 3.4) you achieved for your tertiary studies if it is not included on your transcript.
4. If the documents are not in English they must be accompanied by an official certified English translation.#

* Applicants who have completed their degree are advised if their transcript does not state that they have successfully completed their degree, they must provide an original or certified copy of an official letter from their institution confirming completion, in addition to their final academic transcript.

For translations contact the Department of Immigration and Citizenship, Ground Floor, Casseldon Place, 2 Lonsdale Street, Melbourne VIC 3000, GPO Box 241, Melbourne VIC 3002. Telephone: 131450

PART D Professional Work Experience

Section D1

Please provide details of any relevant work experience to your proposed area of study undertaken in the last five years (if applicable to the program(s) you are applying for).

Section D2

Please include the current contact details of relevant referees who are able to comment on your academic achievement and/or employment history.

Referees may be contacted to assess your suitability for the course.

Section D3

Please ensure you provide evidence of your professional registration (if applicable)

PART E English Language Proficiency

All applicants must satisfy the University's English language requirement to be eligible to be offered a place. There are a number of ways for applicants to meet these requirements, details can be found at www.futurestudents.unimelb.edu.au/courses/pgenglishreq

For most graduate applicants the requirement will be satisfied by the completion of:

- at least the first year of a tertiary course within the last two years; or
- at least a two year tertiary degree within the last five years

at an institution where English is the language of instruction and assessment for the entire institution.

Supporting documentation that demonstrates your meeting of the requirement must be attached to your application such as an academic transcript.

For courses with clinical patient contact, a high level of competence in English is required at the level of IELTS 7.0 or equivalent.

PART F How did you find out about the course?

Please nominate as many fields as appropriate. This information is used for planning purposes.

PART G Declaration and Signature

Must be completed by all applicants. Unsigned applications cannot be processed and will be returned.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This is an application form only and does not constitute enrolment for any course in the University or entitle an applicant to be classified as a student of the University.

It is the applicant's responsibility to advise the University of Melbourne regarding any change of address.

Applicants must provide correct and complete information (including information on all previous studies). If it is found that an applicant has provided incorrect information or withheld relevant information relating to their application, an offer for a place in a course may be withdrawn and/or the enrolment may be cancelled.

Certification of Documents

All applicants to the University of Melbourne courses must provide original or certified copies of any previous results or qualifications from institutions other than the University of Melbourne and any other supporting documentation in relation to your application. Examples of such documents include:

- Birth/marriage certificates etc. required as evidence of name change
- Academic qualifications from other institutions including testamurs/academic transcripts/result certificates
- Copy of Australian Certificate of Citizenship, Permanent Resident, Humanitarian or Temporary Protection Visa.
- Proof of Professional Registration

If your application or documentation is inadequate (e.g. incomplete application fields, supporting documents missing, incorrectly certified copies) we will contact you requesting additional documents, which may delay assessment. Faxed copies will not be accepted.

The following people are acceptable signatories for certification of documents: a justice of the peace or bail justice; a notary public; a barrister and solicitor of the Supreme Court; a clerk to a barrister and solicitor of the Supreme Court; a member of the police force; the sheriff or a deputy sheriff; a registered medical practitioner; a registered dentist; a veterinary practitioner; a pharmacist; a principal in the Victorian government teaching service; the branch manager of a bank; a member of the institute of chartered accountants in Australia or the Australian society of accountants or the national institute of accountants; a minister of religion (not a civil celebrant); a fellow of the institute of legal executives (Victoria).

Please note that all documents submitted with this application remain the property of the University of Melbourne.

Fee Information

The University of Melbourne offers Australian students two enrolment options - Commonwealth supported places (subsidised by the Government) and Australian fee place (the student is responsible for the full cost of the enrolment).

FEE-HELP, a loan scheme for citizens for fee-paying graduate coursework programs, is available to eligible students. Further information on FEE-HELP is available at www.goingtouni.gov.au

Scholarships Information

The University of Melbourne offers an extensive range of scholarships for graduate students. For more information visit: www.services.unimelb.edu.au/scholarships/pgrad
